

Weekly Brief (March 01st – 05th)

Summary:

Last week review: In the past week, JCI continued rally and closed in the green. Globally, the Fed's decision to continue its accommodative policy for the economy receives positive response from investors after the increase in government bond yield in line with oil price. Meanwhile, investors are still paying close attention to the release of financial performance reports amid the lack of positive domestic sentiments.

This week's outlook: At the beginning of March 2021, JCI's movement will be influenced by domestic economic data such as the Consumer Price Index and Manufacturing PMI. Inflation rate in February 2021 is expected to still be low after the cuts to BI-7DRRR benchmark interest rate. Based on survey of economists, monthly inflation is predicted to be at 0.09% or down 0.26% compared to January. Investors are also hoping that Manufacturing PMI will remain in the expansion area, after being recorded at 52.2 last month.

JCI Index	: 6,241.79 (+0.2%)
Foreign Flow	: Net buy of IDR1.0 trillion (vs. last week's net sell of IDR1.1 trillion)
USD/IDR	: 14,235 (-1.21%)
