JCI Movement

Today's Outlook:

Consumer pessimism fuels fears of GDP contraction. Nasdaq led Wall Street's decline, and was down nearly 3%. Consumer expectations, Conf. Board Consumer Confidence in June, fell to a level of 98.7 (Vs. May 103.2) sparking fears of a soft recession, and ahead of the release of next month's earnings season. Based on Bloomberg survey data, US Annualized GDP QoQ 1Q22 is projected to contract -1.5% (Vs. 4Q21 +6.9%), as supply-chain shocks and high inflation weigh on economic growth.

Approaching the psychological level, JCI closed at 6,996 or fell 20 points. Meanwhile, basic materials and finance led the sector declines, followed by technology which was down 0.99%. Foreign investors took another sell-off yesterday, recording a net sell of IDR 1.5 trillion, and the top three selling shares are BBCA, BMRI, and TLKM. JCI has once again cut its decline in the second session, making the projection today is to move mixed with the range of 6,950-7,150.

Fitch Maintains Indonesia's Debt Rating

Rating agency Fitch has continued to maintain Indonesia's debt rating at BBB or investment grade with a stable outlook on Tuesday (28/6). This is in view of Indonesia's good medium-term growth prospects, as well as the government's debt-to-gross domestic product (GDP) ratio which is still low. However, Fitch sees that there are still several challenges that need to be considered by Indonesia, in relation to the increasing external financing ratio as well as government revenues which are considered to be still low. #### ECB to Drain Cash

The European Central Bank will likely drain cash from the banking system to offset any bond purchases made to cap borrowing costs for indebted euro zone states, two sources told Reuters. Bond yields for Italy and other debt-laden countries have surged since the ECB unveiled plans to stop buying debt and raise its interest rates for the first time in over a decade next month to fight runaway inflation. The market turmoil has forced the ECB to speed up work on a new bond-buying scheme to curb yields. (Reuters)
